SUMMER RESORTS.

in August there is to be, as part of the panama. The Rev. Dr. Karl Reiland of St. The Rev. Dr. Karl Reiland of St. George's will also turn to farming. His place is in Connecticut. Bishop Capers of West Texas, the Rev. Dr. Stuart L. Tyson of Princeton and the Rev. Cranston Brenton of the Red Cross will be St. George's summer preachers. The Rev. Dr. David James Burrell's farm at Madison, N. J., will be cared for this summer by the minister of the Marble Collegiate Church.

Three to Visit Exposition. The Rev. Dr. William P. Merrill of

The Rev. Dr. William P. Merrill of the Brick Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Anthony H. Evans, moderator of the New York Presbytery, and the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis of Plymouth Church. Brooklyn, are three ministers who will cross the country, speak many times, visit the Pan-American Exposition and gather materials for fall and winter sermons. The Rev. Dr. John Henry Jowett of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church will sail for England next Tuesday, to-morrow being his last in his pulpit this season. Rumors that Westminster Chapel, London, might call the Fifth Avenue pastor and that he might not return to America are declared by officers of the church to be without foundation.

The Rev. Dr. William T. Manning will keep in close touch with Trinity parish and as officer of the Church Unity Commission will soon announced date and place for a conference on unity for churches of North America. This conference will try to find out what for churches of North America. This conference will try to find out what steps if any churches ought unitedly to take in a settlement of questions growing out of the war. Just as soon as con-ditions in Europe permit the rector of sioner of Education to-day.

Trinity and some others will go abroad to visit official heads of all religious bodies in Europe and the East. The dean of the Cathedral of St. John MADE BUSY BY WAR The dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the Rev. Dr. William M. Grosvenor, will spend much time in Connecticut. The cathedral will have middle West Bishops as preachers. On the cathedral grounds will be pitched a tent and here weekday afternoons and evenings during July and August well known preachers will be heard.

With Churches.

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks of St. Bartholomew's, who usually goes abroad, is uncertain as yet concerning his plans. During July the Sunday preacher at this church will be Bishop McCormick of Western Michigan, and during August the Rev. Dr. S. D. McConnell of Maryland. The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Slattery of Grace Church will go to New Hampshire. Preachers at Grace Church will be Bishop Willieb in many directions far larger work than in the winter season. Protestant elergymen will remain in numbers either at home or near by, within easy call.

at home or near by, within easy call. Those usually going abroad will go instead to the Pacific coast, the summer assemblies and to conferences arranged in various cities. Because the war makes European trips impossible a number of middle West cities have planned religious conferences.

Bishop Greer goes to North East Harbor and hopes to get away almost immediately. The Rev. Dr. Jefferson will remain at the Broadway Tabernacie through June and then go to his farm in New Hampshire. During the first part of July the Tabernacle preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Hugh Black of Union Seminary.

Bashop Gallor of Tennessee in early September.

St. Nicholas's Reformed Church, the clust church in the city, will have a summer service with outside preachers. The minister, the Rev Dr. Malcolm James McLeod, will not go far away. The Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton of Brooklyn, the Rev. Dr. Henry A. Stimson of Manhattan Church in upper Broadway and the Rev Dr. Cornelius Woelfkin of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church will do the same thing.

The Rev. Dr. J. B. Remensnyder of St. James's Lutheran Church will go to San Francisco, as will many of the missionary societies' secretaries and the American Bible Society secretaries, for in August there is to be, as part of the Panama-Pacific plans, a Bible congress.
